Current & Potential Level

Ivan Sunjic is a 20-year-old deep-lying playmaker who currently plays for NK Lokomotiva in the Croatian first division. Sunjic made a great impression last season with his team and is currently one of the most talented Croatian players. His style of play can be compared with Andrea Pirlo. Sunjic reads the game well and is able to think much faster than the average player. His vision, combined with his excellent passing skills on both short and long-range distances, makes him a very promising player who can aim for one of the biggest European leagues in the upcoming years. Sunjic also possesses solid defensive skills, especially with his impressive percentage of recoveries.

Sunjic is ready to make a move in the summer of 2017. I strongly believe that he would be a good addition to any top team in the Belgian Jupiler Pro League or the Dutch Eredivisie. If he develops his physical attributes in the upcoming years, I can see him play in one of the best leagues in 3-4 years.
