Current & Potential Level

Noë Dussenne (24) is a strong central defender who currently plays for RE Mouscron in the Belgian Jupiler Pro League. Dussenne is also the captain of the team. He made a good impression on me in his last two seasons in the highest league of Belgium, playing for two lower ranked teams. Dussenne is a tall and strong centre back who wins almost every aerial duel. Being a natural leader, Dussenne became captain of RE Moeskroen after only playing 9 games for the club. He has a good mentality and would do just about anything for his team. He has decent passing skills and is an overall reliable defender. He is also a very powerful weapon on set pieces.

As a defender, Dussenne surprisingly became top scorer last season, scoring 6 goals in 28 games for his team. Finally, there are still several aspects in his game that can be improved. In my opinion, he is making too much fouls during a game. He has been sent off 3 times in 72 games in the Belgian Jupiler Pro League and received 16 yellow cards. Sometimes, he also has the tendency to take unnecessary risks. If he improves himself on both aspects, I am convinced that Dussenne would be a good signing for a top five team in Belgium. He would also fit well in the English Championship.
