Current & Potential Level

Yoane Wissa is a 21-year-old centre forward who currently plays for AC Ajaccio on loan from SCO Angers. Wissa had a great start with AC Ajaccio in the 17/18 season and has already scored 7 goals in 10 apps.

Wissa is a versatile striker who can play as a centre forward and on both wings as well, due to his excellent acceleration and pace. He has a solid first touch, quick reactions and a real 'winners' mentality.

The young striker has showcased decent finishing skills as well, after scoring 7 goals in his first 10 apps with AC Ajaccio. However, I believe there is still room for improvement on different aspects of his game. His passing skills could use an upgrade and he needs more experience to get a better insight in the game and make better decisions.

I expect him to do well in the remaining season. If he continues to impress us, there will be little doubt that he will play in the Ligue 1 next season. I believe Wissa has the potential to be a good striker in the highest division of France.
